For the reasons set forth below, Opposers and Counterclaim Respondents, Dragon Bleu SAS¹ and VTEC Limited (collectively referred to hereafter as “VTEC”), pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56(c) and 37 C.F.R. § 2.127, move for summary judgment on both the opposition to Application Serial No. 85/848,528 for the mark VENM filed by Venm, LLC (“Venm”) and on Applicant’s counterclaim for partial cancellation of U.S. Registration Number 3,927,787 grounded in abandonment². The facts and law relevant to both the opposition and the counterclaim are related and are recited below in one consolidated motion.

I. INTRODUCTION

The issues for the Board’s consideration in this Motion are cut-and-dry, ripe for summary judgment review. VTEC is the owner of several registrations for its VENUM & Design marks (collectively the “VENUM Mark”). On August 29, 2013, VTEC, though its predecessor in interest, filed the instant Notice of Opposition against Venm’s application to register the trademark VENM, subject of U.S. Serial No. 85/848,528. VTEC’s opposition is grounded in likelihood of confusion, based on its belief that consumer confusion will occur if Venm is granted registration for its highly similar VENM mark on closely related goods. Venm responded with a counterclaim for cancellation of two of VTEC’s registrations based on abandonment. Over the past two years of this proceeding, VTEC has made several earnest attempts to amicably settle the opposition and counterclaim. Nevertheless, Applicant has steadfastly maintained an implacable position, even after receiving detailed information disproving the allegations in its counterclaim.

¹ Dragon Bleu (SARL) underwent a corporate conversion to be organized as a French Société par actions simplifiée and is now known as Dragon Bleu SAS. (See Ex. A.)

² On February 18, 2016, VTEC filed a Surrender of Registration for Cancellation with the Board to voluntarily surrender Registration No. 3,896,673 for the mark VENUM & Design in International Classes 24 and 26 (See Ex. B). The only remaining counterclaim is the claim grounded in abandonment alleged against Registration No. 3,927,787.

The claims alleged in the opposition and Venm's counterclaim are appropriate for resolution on summary judgment. Even when viewing all of the facts in Venm's favor, the record compels the granting of summary judgment in favor of VTEC on both its opposition to Serial No. 85/848,528 and in defense of the counterclaim for partial cancellation of Registration No. 3,927,787.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. VTEC's Use and Registration of the VENUM Mark

VTEC is a leading sportswear apparel and sporting goods company with a focus on apparel and equipment for the practice of martial arts, such as karate, Brazilian jiu jitsu, and mixed martial arts. (Declaration of Franck Dupuis, February 12, 2016 ("Dupuis Decl."), ¶ 6.) VTEC's products have broad appeal among general apparel consumers, professional and amateur athletes, children enrolled in recreational martial arts classes, and fans of martial art competitions. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 7.) VTEC and its predecessor in interest have continuously used the VENUM Mark in United States commerce in connection with apparel since at least as early as January 16, 2006. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 8.) Since January 16, 2006, VTEC and its predecessor in interest have sold over $ 11,000,000 USD in sporting goods and apparel bearing the VENUM Mark in the United States. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 9.) To promote the VENUM brand, VTEC has invested in sponsorship of professional athletes and the Ultimate Fighting Championship league (the "UFC"). (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 10.) VTEC currently sponsors some of the highest ranked martial arts fighters in the world. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 11.) On account of its wide popularity and significant sales, the VENUM Mark has become an extremely valuable business asset for VTEC and a well-known mark among the relevant consumer class. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 12.)

VTEC's products bearing the VENUM Mark are available to U.S. consumers through a wide array of retail and wholesale distribution channels. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 13.) VTEC sells products wholesale to a large network of local resellers in the United States and sells direct to retail consumers through its e-commerce website located at <www.venum.com>. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 14.) VTEC's products are also available at Wal-Mart and Amazon.com, the United States' two largest retailers. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 15.)

1. VTEC's Use of the VENUM Mark on "Kimonos" and "Sport Shoes"

VTEC has consistently used the VENUM Mark in connection with kimonos and sport shoes in the United States. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 16.) The kimono, traditionally referred to as a "Gi," is one of the basic components of the martial arts uniform. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 17.) Kimonos are worn in the practice of karate, Brazilian jiu jitsu, and mixed martial arts. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 18.) VTEC has been consistently using the VENUM Mark on kimonos in the United States since at least as early as October 23, 2012. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 19; Dupuis Decl. Ex. A.) At no point after commencing use on its kimonos in the United States did VTEC ever discontinue use of the mark on those goods. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 20.) The images directly below are photographic samples of VTEC's kimonos that have been widely available to U.S. consumers. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 21.)

(Dupuis Decl. Ex. B.)

In addition to kimonos, VTEC has consistently used the VENUM Mark in the United States in connection with sport shoes for practicing martial arts since at least as early as June 6, 2013. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 22; Dupuis Decl. Ex. C.) At no point after commencing use on its sport shoes in the United States did VTEC ever discontinue use of the mark on those goods. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 23.) “Flip flop” style shoes are indeed sport shoes for practicing martial arts. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 24.) Use of a “flip flop” style shoe in martial arts training dates back to early Japanese karate training. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 25.) The Japanese Zōri is a shoe similar to a “flip flop” that early karate practitioners wore with kimonos before bouts or training. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 26.) VTEC’s “flip flop” sandal style shoe is traditionally used in martial arts for hygienic and sanitary reasons; the shoes are also worn in pre-fight warm up and are useful because they are easy to remove before a barefoot training session or fight. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 27.) The images directly below are photographic samples of VTEC’s training flip flops that have been widely available to U.S. consumers. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 28.)

(Dupuis Decl. Ex. D.)

B. VTEC’s Consumers

VTEC’s consumers are general apparel consumers, professional and amateur athletes, children enrolled in recreational martial arts classes, and fans of martial arts and martial arts competitions. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 29.) It is likely that VTEC’s consumers also have an interest in and/or practice various other forms of martial arts. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 30.) For example, enthusiasts of martial arts often practice forms that are based in meditation and dance for general health and wellness. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 31.) Among these styles of martial arts are the Chinese tai chi and the Brazilian capoeira. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 32.) Capoeira is particularly popular among VTEC's U.S. Brazilian consumers and is a combination of martial arts, dance and acrobatics. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 33.) The clothing worn to practice tai chi and capoeira are similar to the style of VTEC's kimonos and other martial arts clothing. (Dupuis Decl. ¶ 34.)

C. Venm, LLC and Its Application

On February 13, 2013, Venm applied to register the trademark VENM in International Class 25, broadly identifying "dance costumes." The identification of goods in the application contains no restrictions as to the channels of trade or class of consumers, and does not specify any particular style of dance for which the costumes are intended.

III. ARGUMENT

A. The Summary Judgment Standard

To prevail on summary judgment, a party must demonstrate that there are no genuine issues of material fact for trial, and that it is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c). Further, the evidence must be viewed in a light most favorable to the non-moving party, and all justifiable inferences are to be drawn in the non-moving party's favor. Id.; Opryland USA Inc. v. The Great Am. Music Show, Inc., 970 F.2d 847, 851 (Fed. Cir. 1992).

Here, even when the facts are viewed in a light most favorable to Applicant, it is clear there are no genuine issues of material fact that VTEC has priority and that a likelihood of confusion exists between the parties' marks. Furthermore, VTEC presents incontrovertible evidence that it has been using its VENUM Mark in connection with goods subject to the cancellation counterclaim. Accordingly, summary judgment should be granted in favor of VTEC on both VTEC's opposition to Application Serial No. 85/848,528 and in defense of the counterclaim for partial cancellation of Registration No. 3,927,787.

B. Summary Judgment Should Be Granted in Favor of VTEC in Its Opposition to Application Serial No. 85/848,528

The Board should grant VTEC's motion with respect to its opposition to Applicant's VENM application because there is simply no genuine issue of material fact as to likelihood of confusion between Applicant's and VTEC's marks. The Board regularly grants summary judgment in cases involving a likelihood of confusion. See Texas Dept. of Transp. v. Tucker, 95 U.S.P.Q.2d 1241 (T.T.A.B. 2010) (granting summary judgment and holding that Tucker's mark was likely to cause confusion, mistake, and/or falsely suggest to the public that there is an association between the parties); see also Nat'l Cable TV Ass'n, Inc. v. Am. Cinema Editors, Inc., 937 F.2d 1572, 1576, 19 U.S.P.Q.2d 1424, 1427–28 (Fed. Cir. 1991) (affirming the Board's grant of summary judgment for registrant and denial of registration based on likelihood of confusion); Octocom Sys., Inc. v. Houston Computer Servs., Inc., 918 F.2d 937, 943, 16 U.S.P.Q. 2d 1783, 1787 (Fed. Cir. 1990) (affirming the Board's grant of summary judgment for registrant and denial of registration based on likelihood of confusion).

1. There Is No Genuine Issue That VTEC Has Priority in the VENUM Mark

VTEC has established priority in the VENUM Mark. VTEC's Registration No. 3,927,787 for the VENUM & Design trademark in International Class 25 was registered on March 8, 2011. The registration was filed on the basis of Section 66(a) with a priority date of May 27, 2008. Furthermore, VTEC began using the VENUM & Design trademark in U.S. commerce in connection with Class 25 goods at least as early as January 16, 2006. Long after VTEC began use of the VENUM & Design trademark and filed the application that matured into Registration No. 3,927,787, Applicant filed its intent-to-use application on February 13, 2013. Applicant has not alleged a first use date earlier than the constructive use date created by filing its intent-to-use application. Moreover, Applicant has not asserted an affirmative defense or counterclaim alleging priority. Therefore, the earliest date upon which Applicant can rely for priority is February 13, 2013, which post-dates VTEC's priority by nearly five years. 15 U.S.C. § 1057(c); Zirco Corp. v. Am. Tel. & Tel. Co., 21 U.S.P.Q.2d 1542 (T.T.A.B. 1991).

2. There Is No Genuine Issue Regarding Likelihood of Confusion

The Board denies registration to a mark if it “[c]onsists of or comprises a mark which so resembles a mark registered in the Patent and Trademark Office, or a mark or trade name previously used in the United States by another and not abandoned, as to be likely, when used on or in connection with the goods of the applicant, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive.” 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d). The issue of likelihood of confusion is “determined as a matter of law” and is “decided upon the particular facts of the case.” In re Mighty Leaf Tea, 601 F.3d 1342, 1346, 94 U.S.P.Q.2d 1257 (Fed. Cir. 2010); In re Shell Oil Co., 992 F.2d 1204, 1206, 26 U.S.P.Q.2d 1687 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Any reasonable doubt as to likelihood of confusion must be resolved against the junior user in favor of the senior user, “for the newcomer has the opportunity of avoiding confusion, and is charged with the obligation to do so.” Mighty Leaf Tea, 601 F.3d at 1346 (quoting Shell Oil Co., 992 F.2d at 1209).

The likelihood of confusion analysis considers thirteen evidentiary factors (the “duPont factors”), with recognition that certain factors may play more weighty roles than others and thus the relevant duPont factors will depend on the probative facts of the case. Shell Oil Co., 992 F.2d at 1206; see In re E.I. duPont de Nemours & Co., 476 F.2d 1357, 1361, 177 U.S.P.Q. 563, 567 (C.C.P.A. 1973). Further, “[i]n any likelihood of confusion analysis, two key considerations are the similarities between the marks and the similarities between the goods and/or services.” In re Max Capital Grp. Ltd., 93 U.S.P.Q.2d 1243, 1244 (T.T.A.B. 2010). The duPont factors relevant to VTEC’s opposition are (i) the similarity between the relevant marks in appearance, sound, connotation, and commercial impression; (ii) the similarities of products offered under the relevant marks; and (iii) the similar channels of trade and class of consumers.

a. The Dominant Portions of the Marks Are Substantially Identical

Similarity between the marks, including appearance, sound, connotation, and commercial impression, is a “predominant inquiry.” Herbko Int’l, Inc. v. Kappa Books, Inc., 308 F.3d 1156, 1165, 64 U.S.P.Q.2d 1375 (Fed. Cir. 2002). When one mark subject of a likelihood of confusion inquiry consists of words and a design component, the literal portion is considered dominant. While a mark should be considered in its entirety, “it is well-settled that one feature of a mark may be more significant than another, and it is not improper to give more weight to this dominant feature.” Jansen Enters. v. Rind, 85 U.S.P.Q.2d 1104, 1109 (T.T.A.B. 2007). It is also well established that the literal portion of a mark predominates over common design elements.

The literal portion of a mark is how consumers will ask for the product in stores, discuss the product with others, and search for the product on-line. In re Alex Angelino, Ser. No. 78770866, 2009 WL 4863346, at *3 (T.T.A.B. Dec. 1, 2009) (holding the design element of the applied-for-mark was insufficient to distinguish it in appearance from the registered word mark); see also In re Dakin’s Miniatures, Inc., 59 U.S.P.Q.2d 1593, 1596 (T.T.A.B. 1999); Hilson Research Inc. v. Soc’y for Human Res., 27 U.S.P.Q.2d 1423, 1430 (T.T.A.B. 1993); In re Appetito Provisions Co., 3 U.S.P.Q.2d 1553, 1554 (T.T.A.B.1987).

Here, VTEC's mark consists of a snake head design and the term VENUM, specifically VENUM. The design element neither encompasses the literal portion of the mark nor is it otherwise integrated into the term VENUM. Accordingly, the design portion and the literal portion of the VENUM Mark are separable and are capable of making independent commercial impressions. It is clear that the term VENUM is the dominant portion of the mark and should be given more weight.

VTEC's mark consists of a fanciful spelling of the term "venom" by replacing the letter "o" with the letter "u." Applicant's mark is aurally and conceptually identical to the literal and dominant portion of VTEC's mark. Applicant's mark consists of the term VENM, which is also a fanciful spelling of the term "venom" formed by removing the letter "o" altogether. The marks are phonetically identical and will be pronounced by consumers in the same manner. The literal and dominant portions of the respective marks only differ by one letter and are therefore substantially identical.

Applicant's and VTEC's marks make nearly identical commercial impressions when used in connection with the respective International Class 25 items. Both marks connote the concepts of danger, deadliness, or power; concepts that are favorable for creating a brand image that is tough, extreme, edgy, or hardcore. These concepts are at the core of VTEC's branding and are also evident in Applicant's mark. Accordingly, both marks make the same commercial impression.

This factor heavily favors VTEC.

b. The Goods Are Closely Related

The relationship between VTEC's goods and Applicant's goods far exceeds the "viable relationship" required to find a likelihood of confusion between marks that share a high degree of similarity. In re Iolo Techs. LLC, 95 U.S.P.Q.2d 1498, 1499 (T.T.A.B. 2010) (“When the marks are substantially identical, . . . it is only necessary that there be a viable relationship between the goods or services to support a finding of likelihood of confusion.”); see also In re Concordia Int’l Forwarding Corp., 222 U.S.P.Q. 355, 356 (T.T.A.B. 1983). The services of the parties need not be identical or even competitive to find a likelihood of confusion. See On-line Careline Inc. v. Am. Online Inc., 229 F.3d 1080, 1086, 56 U.S.P.Q.2d 1471, 1475 (Fed. Cir. 2000); Recot, Inc. v. Becton, 214 F.3d 1322, 1329, 54 U.S.P.Q.2d 1894, 1898 (Fed. Cir. 2000) (“[E]ven if the goods in question are different from, and thus not related to, one another in kind, the same goods can be related in the mind of the consuming public as to the origin of the goods.”). The respective goods need only be “related in some manner and/or if the circumstances surrounding their marketing [be] such that they could give rise to the mistaken belief that [the services] emanate from the same source.” Coach Servs., Inc. v. Triumph Learning LLC, 668 F.3d 1356, 1369, 101 U.S.P.Q.2d 1713, 1722 (Fed. Cir. 2012) (quoting 7-Eleven Inc. v. Wechsler, 83 U.S.P.Q.2d 1715, 1724 (T.T.A.B. 2007)); Gen. Mills Inc. v. Fage Dairy Processing Indus. SA, 100 U.S.P.Q.2d 1584, 1597 (T.T.A.B. 2011); see also In re Melville Corp., 18 U.S.P.Q.2d 1386 (T.T.A.B. 1991).

Even if the Board determines that there is not a “close link” between the parties’ respective types of clothing, VTEC has clearly shown that the goods are sufficiently related that, when sold under highly similar marks, purchasers are likely to be confused. While there may be no per se rule governing likelihood of confusion in cases involving clothing items, the Board regularly finds different types of apparel items related for purposes of likelihood of confusion. A likelihood of confusion has been found where the type of apparel and relevant consumer differ in kind, gender, and age. See In re Leisure Craft Indus., Inc., Ser. No. 85384900, 2014 WL 1246730 (T.T.A.B. Mar. 12, 2014) (finding WEATHERTECH for industrial outerwear and WEATHERTEX for embroidered and non-embroidered clothing apparel confusingly similar); In re Cook United, Inc., 185 U.S.P.Q. 444 (T.T.A.B. 1975) (finding GRANADA for men’s suits, coats, and trousers and GRANADA for ladies’ pantyhose and hosiery confusingly similar); Esquire Sportswear Mfg. Co. v. Genesco Inc., 114 U.S.P.Q. 400 (T.T.A.B. 1964) (finding SLEEX for women’s brassieres and girdles and SLEEX for men’s slacks confusingly similar); see also Cambridge Rubber Co. v. Cluett, Peabody & Co., 286 F.2d 623, 128 U.S.P.Q. 549 (C.C.P.A. 1961) (finding WINTER CARNIVAL for women’s boots and WINTER CARNIVAL for men’s and boy’s underwear confusingly similar); Gen’l Shoe Co. v. Hollywood-Maxwell Co., 277 F.2d 169, 125 U.S.P.Q. 443 (C.C.P.A. 1960) (finding INGENUE for shoes and INGENUE for brassieres confusingly similar).

Finally, there may be a likelihood of confusion where an applicant identifies its goods or services so broadly that the identification encompasses the goods or services identified in the registration of a similar mark. See, e.g., In re Fiesta Palms LLC, 85 U.S.P.Q.2d 1360 (T.T.A.B. 2007) (holding CLUB PALMS MVP for “casino services” and MVP for “casino services offered to preferred customers identified by special identification cards” likely to cause confusion); In re Equitable Bancorporation, 229 U.S.P.Q. 709 (T.T.A.B. 1986) (holding RESPONSE for “banking services” and RESPONSE CARD for “banking services rendered through 24-hour teller machines” likely to cause confusion).

Applicant’s identification of goods broadly claims “dance costumes,” without any restriction as to the type of dance, type of consumer, or channel of trade. The Board must consider that Applicant’s dance costumes are for every purpose, type of dance, and type of consumer. This broad identification has more than a casual relationship to VTEC’s martial arts clothing. For example, Applicant’s dance costumes may be marketed for children’s dance classes and may be sold at the same recreational facility where VTEC’s jiu jitsu clothing is sold for children's martial arts classes. Likewise, even if the respective products are not sold side-by-side, the same parent may purchase a VENM ballet costume for one child and a VENUM karate kimono for another child.

Upon closer consideration, it is evident that Applicant's and VTEC's goods share a very close relationship. The concepts of martial arts and dance overlap. While one aspect of martial arts consists of combat fighting, there is another aspect that incorporates components of dance, meditation, and acrobatics. The Brazilian martial art known as capoeira is a martial art that takes the form of dance and acrobatics. Similarly, the ancient Chinese martial art tai chi incorporates slow, graceful movements indistinguishable from dance. Both performers of capoeira and tai chi use the same style clothing as those who practice the martial arts of karate and jiu jitsu. It follows that capoeira and tai chi clothing can fairly be categorized both as dance costumes and martial arts clothing. It is easily conceivable that a VENM capoeira costume or tai chi costume would be sold along side a VENUM karate uniform. It is a real concern that consumers will encounter both Applicant's and VTEC's goods under these circumstances that clearly engender confusion.

Moreover, VTEC has attached evidence consisting of a number of third-party marks registered for use in connection with the same or similar goods as those of Applicant and VTEC in this case. Third-party registrations that cover a number of different goods or services may have some probative value to the extent that they may serve to suggest that goods or services are of a type that may emanate from a single source, if the registrations are based on use in commerce. In re Mucky Duck Mustard Co., 6 U.S.P.Q.2d 1467, 1470 n.6 (T.T.A.B.), aff'd per curiam, 864 F.2d 149 (Fed. Cir. 1988); see also In re Princeton Tectonics, Inc., 95 U.S.P.Q.2d 1509, 1511 (T.T.A.B. 2010); TMEP § 1207.01(d)(iii).

(See Ex. C)

These registrations show that kimonos and sport shoes, as identified in VTEC's VENUM registrations, and Applicant's dance costumes are of a type that may emanate from a single source.

This factor favors VTEC.

c. The Channels of Trade and Consumers Are Identical

If an application describes goods or services broadly, and there is no limitation as to their nature, type, channels of trade, or class of purchasers, it is presumed that the application encompasses all goods or services of the type described, that they move in all normal channels of trade, and that they are available to all classes of purchasers. See Levi Strauss & Co. v. Abercrombie & Fitch Trading Co., 719 F.3d 1367, 1373, 107 U.S.P.Q.2d 1167, 1173 (Fed. Cir. 2013); In re Thor Tech, Inc., 90 U.S.P.Q.2d 1634, 1638 (T.T.A.B. 2009) (“We have no authority to read any restrictions or limitations into the registrant’s description of goods.”); In re Jump Designs, LLC, 80 U.S.P.Q.2d 1370, 1374 (T.T.A.B. 2006).

Here it must be concluded that Applicant’s and Registrant’s goods will travel in the same channels of trade. VTEC utilizes nearly every conceivable channel of trade — it sells its goods at wholesale, through a proprietary e-commerce site, through third-party e-commerce sites, and via a large network of retail stores. Given Applicant’s unrestricted identification of goods, its dance costumes must be presumed to be sold in all ordinary channels of trade, which overlap with VTEC’s product distribution. This fact only enhances the likelihood that the products will be encountered by the same consumer class and under conditions that foster confusion.

Moreover, in this case there is potential for direct consumer overlap among VTEC’s Brazilian U.S. consumers that may practice both Brazilian jiu jitsu and Brazilian capoeira. Should Applicant market a capoeira costume under the VENM trademark, the very same consumer would be encountering both Applicant’s and VTEC’s goods. Likewise, parents of children that take recreational martial arts and dance classes may also be a consumer of Applicant and a consumer of VTEC. Under these conditions consumer confusion is inevitable.

This factor heavily favors VTEC.

C. Summary Judgment Should Be Granted in Favor of VTEC in Defense of Applicant's Counterclaim for Cancellation Grounded in Abandonment

There is simply no genuine issue of material fact as to whether VTEC has abandoned its trademark for “kimonos” and “sport shoes.” For a petitioner to establish trademark abandonment, it must demonstrate either (i) that the mark has not been in use in commerce for three consecutive years, or (ii) that registrant has discontinued use without the intent to resume use. 15 U.S.C. § 1127; see On-Line Careline, Inc., 229 F.3d at 1087. To cancel a Section 66(a) registration based on abandonment, the earliest point in time from which the period of nonuse may be measured is the date of registration. Board Order of December 1, 2014, 11 TTABVue at *16 [precedential].

VTEC has been selling kimonos and flip-flops, a form of sport shoes, under its registered VENUM & Design trademark for several years. VTEC's kimonos and sport shoes have been sold via brick-and-mortar retail stores and online retail stores, including Amazon.com.

Here, VTEC's registration issued on March 8, 2011. For Applicant to succeed in cancelling “kimonos” and “sport shoes” from Registration No. 3,927,787, it would have to establish (i) that VTEC did not use the VENUM Mark in connection with those goods for any three-year period beginning from March 8, 2011, or (ii) that the mark was discontinued without the intent to resume use at some point after March 8, 2011. VTEC has presented clear evidence that use of the VENUM & Design trademark in connection with kimonos and sport shoes commenced in the United States at least as early as October 23, 2012 and June 6, 2013, respectively. Accordingly, VTEC began using its mark in the United States on the relevant goods well before the third anniversary of its registration. VTEC has also presented clear evidence that once the VENUM & Design trademark commenced in the United States in connection with kimonos and sport shoes, use continued regularly and has never been discontinued. There is no issue of material fact that VTEC has not abandoned the VENUM & Design trademark for kimonos or sport shoes.

For the reasons stated above, summary judgment should be awarded to VTEC on its defense to the counterclaim alleging abandonment, because petitioner will not be able to prove the prima facie elements of abandonment. Summary judgment should also be awarded to VTEC on its opposition to Serial No. 85/848,528, because of the likelihood of confusion between the marks is inevitable.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Board encourages resolving matters on summary judgment especially in cases such as this one, where no additional material facts will be uncovered at trial. See Barmag Barmer Maschinenfabrik AG v. Murata Mach., Ltd., 731 F.2d 831, 221 U.S.P.Q. 564 (Fed. Cir. 1984); Pure Gold, Inc. v. Syntex (USA), Inc., 739 F.2d 624, 627 n.2, 222 U.S.P.Q. 741 (Fed. Cir. 1984) (summary judgment “is to be encouraged in inter partes cases before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board”). Because no genuine issues of material fact exist as to abandonment and likelihood of confusion, VTEC respectfully requests that summary judgment be granted in its favor.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

NOTE: A courtesy e-mail reminder of USPTO maintenance filing deadlines will be sent to trademark owners/holders who authorize e-mail communication and maintain a current e-mail address with the USPTO. To ensure that e-mail is authorized and your address is current, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) Correspondence Address and Change of Owner Address Forms available at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or reminder of these filing requirements.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or reminder of these filing requirements.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO). The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.
